Kinky Boots

SHEFFIELD
THEATRES
LYCEUM

Based on the 2005 British film Kinky Boots, the Broadway Musical with music and lyrics by Cyndi Lauper and book by Harvey Fierstein is inspired by true events and tells the story of Charlie Price.

Charlie suddenly inherits his father's shoe factory, which is on the verge of bankruptcy. He faces the decision of whether to pursue a new life in London with his fiancée Nicola or return to the town in which he grew up and save his father's dreams. Ultimately, Charlie decides to try to live up to his father's legacy and rescue the family business. In doing so, he finds unlikely inspiration in the form of Lola, a fabulous drag queen who needs some sturdy stiletto boots. Lola turns out to be the one person who can help Charlie become the man he's meant to be. As they work to turn the factory around, this unlikely pair find that they have more in common than they ever dreamed possible. With the door thrown open and the world at their feet, Charlie discovers that when you change your mind about someone, you can change your whole world.

Kinky Boots is a spectacular, big-hearted musical full of singing, dancing, and laughter.

A letter from our Chair

A very warm welcome to The Lyceum Theatre and Croft House Theatre Company's production of 'Kinky Boots'.

This is my first season as Chair of the society. I joined Croft in 1987 as a young boy for their production of "Pirates of Penzance". I was voted on to the then committee to represent the younger members. I had no idea that jumping forward 35 years I would be taking on the prestigious role of Chair. When I think back to all the past Chairs I find it a great honour to be following in their footsteps. I always looked up to these people with great admiration and held them in high regard.

Any Captain of a ship is nothing without his crew. I can honestly say I have the best crew around. We've welcomed new members to the trustees this season. It's so good to see younger members stepping up to the helm and helping learn the ropes so as to help sustain the longevity of the society. I have to say a huge thank you to these newbies and to the existing trustees for all their help and support in what has been an extra tough year for me personally. Thank you sincerely guys, I couldn't have managed without you, and I love you all.

We again welcome our fabulous production team of Claire Harriott Director/Choreographer, David Burgess Musical Director, and this year Matt Symonds as our accompanist. Wait until you see what this team have brought you this year, it's going to knock your socks off. Thank you very much guys.

However, we have to sadly say goodbye to our current M.D David after this show. David will be marrying his lovely partner Laura and will then be taking on a new job as Head of Performing Arts at Margate School in Tenerife. We'd like to send all our love and best wishes to David & Laura and wish them all the best in their new life in Tenerife; Team Croft will really miss you.

I need to also thank all our 'unsung heroes' behind the scenes, without whom this show simply wouldn't go on. You know who you all are. We are truly indebted to you all.

Finally, thanks to you our fabulous audience, with your continuous support the society can continue to thrive and bring you new and exciting shows.

I would like, if I may, to dedicate this production to the memory of my beautiful wife Alison x

Now sit back, relax, and enjoy our fabulously talented cast in 'Kinky Boots', I'm very proud of each and every one of them.

Thank you
Andrew

Angels on location by Ashlea Screator

"Then make something they do want. Change the product!"

Did you know 'Kinky Boots' is inspired by a true story? But just how did a late 90s real-life factory dilemma become an international musical hit?

Before there was 'Kinky Boots' the musical, and 'Kinky Boots' the film, there was a 1999 BBC2 documentary 'Trouble at the Top' which launched the journey of this now iconic story.

The musical's protagonist, Charlie Price, is based on real-life Northamptonshire shoe factory owner, Steve Pateman. Steve had begun working in his dad's shoe factory, W. J. Brookes Shoe Company, East Barton, in 1979 and by 1993 was running the family business. By the late 1990s however, just like Charlie, Steve was faced with trying to save the factory when cheap imports threatened its survival; and its rescue didn't come in a chance encounter with a drag artist but in the form of an unexpected phone call, as Steve explains: "The factory was on the brink. Then I got a call from a lady called Sue Shepard. She was running a store down in Felixstowe, but was struggling with imports, and asked me if I would be able to make ladies shoes but in men's sizes. I thought it would be a small market, but Sue was waiting 6 – 9 months for delivery, and it all went off from there - not quite as dramatic as it is depicted in the musical!"

And so W.J. Brookes Shoe Company embarked on a new direction and launched a new range: Divine Footwear. It caught the attention of the BBC and in 1998 they began making a documentary, 'Trouble at the Top – The Kinky Boot Factory', before hitting the screens in 1999. Steve continues, "The programme followed me for 2 months making these boots and shoes and going to exhibitions and to see customers, as well as how I made them in the factory. Harbour Pictures saw the BBC production and reached out, explaining that they wanted my story to be the basis of their next British release."

Steve was a consultant on the production, which was released in October 2005, even appearing in a cameo role. The character of Lola was created for the film, a "larger than life character" based on a number of people involved in the story from the beginning. Steve says: "Something I struggled to come to terms with is how Charlie is portrayed in the film. He isn't very clever, and Lola takes the credit for his, or my, creations. It is odd to watch."

The film sparked the development of the 2012 musical with music and lyrics by Cyndi Lauper and book by Harvey Fierstein and although Steve wasn't involved, he felt it was "great to see the story being kept alive in such a way".

The musical made its Broadway premiere ten years ago in March 2013 and went on to win six Tony awards including Best Musical, Best Score and Best Actor for Billy Porter.

Steve has explored his story in a book, 'Boss in Boots', written alongside Northampton-based author David Saint. Pop along to <https://www.bossinboots.co.uk> for more information. Since being released for amateurs, Steve has tried to support as many productions of the musical as possible. If you're in the house on Tuesday, you may spot him in the audience as we welcome him to Sheffield to cheer on Team Croft!

James Smith Charlie Price

James is chuffed to be making his Croft House debut as Charlie Price! He has seen the show many times professionally and on the local am dram circuit. Although it's James' first Croft show he is no stranger to the Lyceum stage; he was lucky enough to play Joe Casey with STOS in (Our House) back in 2013. Over the years James has been fortunate to play some fabulous leading roles at The City Hall with Manor Operatic Society in their annual pantomimes and mid-year musical productions. Roles including, Caractacus Potts (Chitty Chitty Bang Bang) The Beast (Beauty & the Beast) Don Lockwood (Singing in the Rain) Tinman (The Wiz) and many more... but for now he says, "Let's make boots!"

Steven Hayles Lola/Simon

Joining Croft ensemble in 2016 Steven played the Aborigine Jimmy (Priscilla Queen Of The Desert). He returned in 2019 to play the loveable suave Rum Tum Tugger (Cats). Steven works with Dearne Playhouse Theatre editing music, where he also played one of the "not so beautiful" ugly sisters (Cinderella). Also, with Laffin Boi productions; his roles in adult versions of classic pantomimes include; Fairy (Cinderella) Genie (Not Disney's Aladdin) and Campy (Snow White). He has also music edited for 'Strictly Come Dancing' side show 'The Ballroom boys' starring Ian Waite, Vincent Simone and best friend James Lomas (the original West-End Billy Elliot). At EPDA Dance Academy he has taught Modern, Lyrical, Street and BBO Dance, also helping with choreography for their productions. Steven is part of duo 'Northern Vibes', singing for corporate events and clubs around the country. He is super excited to be on stage again with Croft, with such an amazing cast and donning those heels as the iconic Lola ... a dream role of his.

Jennifer Horsfield Nicola

Jen has been performing in musicals since age 11 and has appeared in numerous shows around Sheffield with various societies over the years. She is excited to return to the Lyceum stage with Croft again after first being a 'Chapernun' in 2012 (Sound of Music), she also played Cinderella in 2016 (Into The Woods) and Demeter in 2019 (Cats). This show is a bit of a change from the last shows she has done with Croft, but she is thrilled to be donning some Kinky Boots as part of this glamorous and exciting show.

Alice Mackenzie Lauren

Delighted to be back on stage with Croft Alice is feeling very grateful to be playing one of her dream roles. No stranger to the am dram world, she has appeared in many shows with different companies. Her most precious memories include, Jenny (Calendar Girls) Croft 2022, and Annie (Annie) 2012 with Handsworth & Hallam Theatre Company. She has also appeared as Teenage Fiona and Red Riding Hood (Shrek) STOS 2019, Etcetera (Cats) Croft 2019 and Baby Bear (Goldilocks and the Three Bears) Handsworth & Hallam 2020. Alice currently teaches competitive freestyle dance at Erika Wilkinson Dance Academy. She feels honoured to be playing Lauren alongside a mega talented bunch. She hopes you enjoy the show and can guarantee you'll be singing the songs on your way home!

John Crowther Don

Performing since the age of 5, John followed a well-established family tradition by joining his parents Tony & Hazel in Croft's 1993 production (Oklahoma). A stalwart member for over 30 years he has played numerous roles from comedy to pathos. His most recent memorable roles being Joey (Sister Act) 2015, Frank (Priscilla Queen of the Desert) 2017, and Nathan (Seven Brides for Seven Brothers) 2018, but he thoroughly enjoyed his role as Rod in our last year's production of Calendar Girls.

Caroline Fojut Pat

Caroline gained a BA (Hons) in Musical Theatre at The Guildford School of Acting and her training culminated in playing Sarah Brown in the Graduation Show (Guys and Dolls). After working as an Actor and teacher at various stage schools in London and Reading, she gained her PGCE teaching qualification. She's spent the last twenty years teaching acting and singing and absolutely relishes coaching and guiding her students to achieve their potential. This is Caroline's fourth show with Croft and she's delighted to join the company again, having played Annie (Calendar Girls) 2022 she says, "it's a bonus to be able to keep costumes on this year!". She loves the fun factor of Kinky Boots and has had a fantastic time rehearsing and performing alongside this fabulous cast.

Helen Green Trish

Having bared all behind a mountain of cake as our Calendar Girl Celia last year, Helen is very relieved Trish keeps her clothes on! Hailing from Darlington, she spent her childhood, with her family, watching everything the local operatic society had to offer and always dreamed to be on stage there too. It wasn't until university that she revisited the idea. Since then Helen has played a number of principal roles across Yorkshire from Reno in (Anything Goes) Sally in (Me and My Girl) and Joanne in (Rent) to The Baker's Wife in Croft's (Into The Woods) 2016. She teaches English in Doncaster and is mum to Emily & Kate.

Mark Harris George

This is the first time since 2019 that Mark has set foot on the Lyceum stage in "Performance Mode" after directing for STOS for the past few years. His last role with Croft was Skimbleshanks the Railway Cat (Cats) 2019, which brings back very fond memories. Mark says it was time to dust off the dancing shoes and hope the brain still works for taking on roles again. He says, "George is a nice character; a little bit of singing, dancing, acting and done - perfect for a man of my age and sensibilities!" Mark sends a message to enjoy the show and look out for those boots!

Richard Granger Harry & Miss-Gia Batta

Richard has had the privilege of performing many of his favourite roles with societies across Sheffield. He is making his Croft debut this year and has enjoyed working with everyone to bring Kinky Boots to the stage. Richard's previous Credits include, Buddy the Elf (Elf), Emmett (Legally Blonde), Lord Farquaad (Shrek), Freddie Eynsford-Hill (My Fair Lady), Ren (Footloose), Mole (Wind in the Willows). Watch out for his alter ego in drag!

Lilli Connolly Marge (and Ensemble)

Lilli is absolutely thrilled to be a part of Kinky Boots alongside such amazing talent! Since moving to Sheffield in 2018 she has performed in a number of concerts and shows including (Footloose) and (The Wedding Singer) for Woodseats Theatre Company. This is Lilli's first Croft show and she feels incredibly blessed to have a chance to perform on the Lyceum stage, doing what she loves.

Matt Bevan Richard Bailey (and Ensemble)

This will be Matt's 4th Croft show after playing Daniel (7 Brides for 7 Brothers) 2018, the bad ginger cat Macavity (Cats) 2019, and Lawrence (Calendar Girls) 2021. He has played many other roles for various groups but he is looking forward to being back with Croft again and says this is a show that no matter what role he had, he just wanted to be a part of it, even if it does mean trying to dance in a pair of heels! Matt has played numerous roles across Sheffield, most recently playing Davy (Sunshine on Leith) for STOS. "This is a show that you can't help but enjoy and you are guaranteed to leave the Lyceum tonight with a smile on your face."

Angels

James Bell Miss- Velma Celli

James debut in drag was literally named 'Strange looking girl in a Paris night-club' in (Summer Holiday) "my sister didn't recognise me". 2nd was as 'Young Bernadette' (Priscilla Queen of the Desert) 2017, "my dad didn't realise I was lip-syncing to a woman's voice". He is in heels again as "Velma Celli" "who might be on the run after a double murder at the Hotel Cicero". This is his 20th year on stage, which he never expected when he agreed to help out Chapeltown Operatic as a "tap dancing male". James thanks his friends and family for their love and support.

Joe White Miss- Liz Angelo

Joe has been a member of Croft for nearly 10 years. As Vice Chair, he sees the hard work that goes into rehearsals and the many meetings to get a show on the road. He is so excited to be treading the stage in heels this year, which is a whole new challenge. His roles have been varied, last year he played Danny (Calendar Girls). Joe wants to give a special shout out to his Granny Sue, who has held off sickness to finally see him be an Angel in this fabulous show.

Chris Barker Miss- Minnie Stroni

Chris is back in his 4th Croft Show, after performing as one of the Drag Queens (Priscilla Queen of the Desert) 2017, a Suitor (Seven Brides for Seven Brothers) 2018, and as Victor (Cats) 2019. Being a homegrown Drag artist as "Miss Cleo" in 'The Funky Beaver Show', Chris is feeling right at home strutting his stuff alongside his fellow Angels and is excited to be back on the Lyceum Stage with his Croft Family.

Simon Addy Miss- Foo Caccia

Simon isn't your average Angel... he is typically seen driving trucks up and down the country. He has appeared in many musicals since his debut at the Lyceum age 10 in Oliver! Simons last show with Croft was a Suiter (7 Brides for 7 Brothers) 2018. Later this year he will be appearing on your TV screens as an extra in a graphic novel adaptation of Bodies on Netflix.

Connor Lovatt Miss- Cara Nara

This is Connors first show with Croft after performing with STOS for the past three years in (Shrek) 2019 (Elf) 2020 and (Sunshine on Leith) 2022. He can't wait to get back on the Lyceum stage once again; but this time in full drag and a pair of heels!

Richard Granger Miss- Gia Batta

Kinky Boots is Richard's first show with Croft, having performed for several other societies across Sheffield. It is also Richard's first venture wearing heels, so he feels like he has gone up in the world! He is excited to reveal his Drag alter ego to the world, Miss Gia Batta has arrived!!

Fathers and Sons

Richard Carlin Mr Price Senior

Richard has been a member of Croft since 1994 (Irene). He has played many varied leading roles over the years, most recently Adam in (Seven Brides for Seven Brothers) 2018 and Old Deuteronomy in (Cats) 2019. His son George is now following in dad's footsteps. Big boots to fill...

Keith Harriott Simon Senior

A stalwart member of Croft for 37 years, Keith has been performing in shows with us since 1986. He has played numerous character and cameo roles too many to mention; but unforgettable in both comedy & pathos. Keith is also a strong vocal member of the ensemble.

George Carlin Young Charlie

This is not the first time George has performed with his dad. While attending dance lessons at Dronfield Dance & Theatre Academy, he sang with Richard for the dancing school show. George is also learning to play the guitar and he entertained the neighbours playing it during lockdown. Now aged 11, he plays rugby for Dronfield rugby club.

Freddie Beau Cooper Young Simon

Freddie, aged 12, trains at and is represented by Articulate Drama School and Agency. No stranger to performing – he plays J.J in 'Princess Mirror-Belle' (series 2 CBBC and BBC iplayer). Other TV credits include 'Rugby League World Cup' commercial 2020, 'Mr Tumble Easter Special' 2021, 'Class Dismissed' (CBBC 2021). Modelling credits include JD Sports, Lidl, Aldi and Costato.

Alison Claire Stansall

3rd April 1968 - 28th Dec 2022

*Croft are truly saddened to announce the passing of our dear friend Alison.
She was a true inspiration and a beautiful woman who has left a big hole in our hearts.*

Her smile lit up the room and her energy was infectious.

We have lost a dear friend but we know she will be shining bright among the stars.

Our heartfelt condolences to Andrew, Abigail, Maureen and all their family and friends.

Below is Alison appearing in her final role with Croft in 'Cats' as Jennyanydots...

In which she appeared with husband Andrew as Munkustrap & daughter Abigail as Victoria.

Memories we will treasure

The Historical facts about Croft House:

'Croft House Settlement Musical and Dramatic Society' was originally founded in 1902 as part of the Croft House Settlement in Garden Street in the heart of Sheffield. The aim of the Settlement was to provide educational and recreational facilities for underprivileged children in the city. Various sections, including the Operatic Society, worked to raise money to support and help the running of the Settlement which still exists and operates in Garden Street. In the early years the society's first shows were performed there.

As the company grew and audiences widened, they had to move to the Temperance Hall - the site of the later Sheffield Playhouse. In 1920 the Cutler's Hall was booked for a performance of 'Merrie England' and the show was such a success the Company moved in 1921 to the Lyceum Theatre and this was their home for the next 10 years. From 1931 and then continuing after the Second World War most of the productions were held at the Empire Theatre until the theatre was sadly closed. The Society returned to the Sheffield Lyceum in 1960 but again our productions ended there when it also closed in 1969. Croft's 1970 production of 'Virginia' was held at The Montgomery Theatre; then from 1971 to 1990 'Croft House Amateur Operatic Society' (fondly called CHAOS) performed to their biggest audiences at the Sheffield City Hall.

For many years Croft, along with other theatre friends, had campaigned to get the now derelict Lyceum Theatre renovated by joining 'The Friends of the Lyceum Theatre'. The Lyceum Theatre was re-opened in 1990 with a "Grand Amateur Operatic Gala" on 14th December featuring Croft and three other top amateur companies in Sheffield in aid of the Lyceum Theatre Appeal. In March 1991 we were honoured to be the first amateur company to be invited back to perform at the newly refurbished LYCEUM. Many people thought the Lyceum would never be restored to its former glory, but its foundations have always remained strong. Our foundations were also well placed over 100 years ago and the traditions of the society still continue. Over the years our title name has shortened from its lengthy humble beginnings. In September 2010 we changed our name to 'Croft House Theatre Company' to represent the modern musical company we now are; but to all our patrons, members and friends we are just CROFT.
